INFORMATION

Welcome to Just Jules

A friendly and fun small business which offers beautiful jewellery, accessories, gifts and homeware. Our collections are all curated or designed by owner Jules and encompass her passion for muted feminine tones and elegant coastal living.

Based within Leicestershire, but happy to attend events across the Midlands.

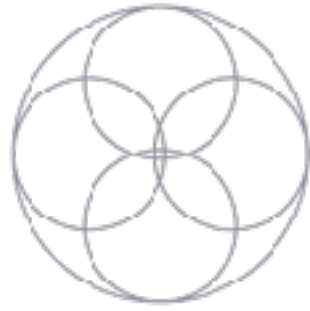

Take a look at our stand

Designing a stand which clearly represents the style of my business has been a passion. I hope you will agree that the stand will make a great addition to your event in both the aesthetic it will provide, as well as the great range of products on offer.
